Dear Sir,

I am to refer to your letter No. GCAB/71 dated 30-07-2005, on the subject cited above and to inform you that a Committee constituted by the Vice-Chancellor in another similar case unanimously recommended that as per notification No. CBA-Misc.2/2003/11355-366 dated 21-10-2003 whereby resolution No. 14 of 30-09-2003 of the Executive Council of University was conveyed to all the concerned colleges. This resolution clearly indicates interalia that in normal course approval of the University is not required for the teachers appointed by the Haryana Public Service Commission in the Govt. Colleges. The Vice-Chancellor has approved the proceedings in this regard. Hence, there is no need to seek approval of the University in the following appointments:-

Dear Sir,

I am to refer to your letter No. GCS/2004/881 dated 14-10-2004 addressed to Registrar, Ch. Devi Lal University, Sirsa, on the subject cited above and to inform you that a Committee constituted by the Vice-Chancellor in another similar case unanimously recommended that as per notification No. CBA-Misc.2/2003/11355-366 dated 21-10-2003 whereby resolution No. 14 of 30-09-2003 of the Executive Council of University was conveyed to all the concerned colleges. This resolution clearly indicates inter alia that in normal course approval of the University is not required for the teachers appointed by the Haryana Public Service Commission in the Govt. Colleges. The Vice-Chancellor has approved the proceedings in this regard. Hence, there is no need to seek approval of the University in this case.

Yours faithfully,

Subject: Approval of appointment of teaching Staff.

Dear Sir,

This is in reference to your letter Memo NoGCG/2007/1559-dated 08-01-2007, on the subject cited above.

It is to inform you that a Committee constituted by the Vice-Chancellor in another similar case unanimously recommended that as per notification No. CBA-Misc.2/2003/11355-366 dated 21-10-2003 whereby resolution No.; 14 of 30-09-2003 of the Executive Council of University was conveyed to all the concerned colleges. This resolution clearly indicates interalia that in normal course approval of the University is not required for the teachers appointed by the Haryana Public Service Commission in the Govt. Colleges. The Vice-Chancellor has approved the proceedings in this regard. Hence, there is no need to seek approval of the University of the following of your Colleges: -

1. Smt. Sumitra Vij, Lecturer in Commerce.
2. Smt. Sarita, Lecturer in Mathematics.
3. Smt. Hem Prabha, Lecturer in Economics.
